toto

"The dreaming dog, born to keep you company."

Inspired by the French Bouledogue, Totò is docile and reliable, a perfect company for you and your family.

With his bright look and the typical body structure of the molossus dog, he merges a royal aspect and a nice attitude. Totò stands out for his nobility and untamed heart.

VióN Design put all his beauty in the ceramic, fully replicating his energy and emotionality through the characteristic beam of light which characterizes its products.

yorick

"To be or not to be, that is the question. Light or darkness?"

Hamletish Yorick shows we are made of light under any circumstance, able to reflect and give answers, but mostly to question ourselves.

Two parts becoming one.

Light is the soul of our body.
Here, the light meets the beauty of ceramic.

LED lamp, 100% Handmade in Italy.

ercole

"The extreme limit of the known world."

The legendary pillars symbolizing the limits of knowledge.

Despite man's fear for the unknown, instinct takes over pushing us to pursue the truth, allowing us to sometimes achieve what is thought impossible.

Great classics as modern fiction, the magazines we love the most, are well suited to be kept between the basis of two pillars.

venere

"The goddess of love, beauty and fertility."

These ideals have always inspired mankind. Venere has been portrayed in many artworks since early ancient times.

Vión Design wanted to pay her a tribute with a hand crafted lamp, made of ceramic, so that she could be part of our everyday life, inspiring us with her beauty and shiny essence.

discobolo

"Style and athletics in one intense expression."

The Discobolo, the historical statue which Myron carved in 455 BC for the city of Sparta, represents the early stage of the discus throwing, the moment the athlete gathers his forces before releasing his energy.

Vión Design interpreted his gesture as a two parts structure, which can be used both as a vase and a jewel case. The two parts can be joined or split in two trunks to be used separately.

gigi

"A heart throbbing on its way to its beloved".

The pigeon traveler is a variety of domestic pigeon derived from the eastern wild pigeon, genetically selected for its ability to find the way home from very high distances.

The pigeon traveler has an innate sense of orientation that allows him to return to his nest using the phenomenon of magnetoricezione.

Thanks to its ability to orientate and travel far in the past it was used to carry messages from one place to another and the term that indicated these messages is a colombigram.
